What Can I do If I Have Been Overcharge?

- ⇒ If you have been overcharged, call the telephone company or its billing agent identified on your bill.
- ⇒ If the company is unable to assist you, send a copy of your bill and a letter explaining your position to the Illinois Commerce Commission's Consumer Services Division. In your letter, please explain how you made the call so we can determine the appropriate surcharge.

Note: The rates and surcharges are reviewed annually and may change each January.
